WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28 1738.

91:939.

Vienna, June 7. O. S.

IS remark'd, as pretty extraordinary, that the States General, who have not thought fit to admit a Commissary from the French Court to the Congress at Antwerp, have nevertheless made Instances at the said Court, and ours too, for some time past, that they might be permitted to send a Commissary to the Congress at Lisle. The French Court after having deerr'd from time to time to explain themselves upon that Article, has at last given a Declaration upon this Subject to M. Van Hoey, to be sent to their High Mightinesses; of which the Prince de Lichtenstein has obtained the following Copy, and sent it hither.

'The most Christian King, always vigilant for Opportunities to give Proofs of the Regard which he has for the States General, and of his Inclinations to oblige them in every thing within his Power, would consent, without Scruple, to the Admission of Commissioners from their High Mightinesses to the Conferences that are to be held at Lisle, for regulating the Limits of his most Christian Majesty's Dominions on one Side, and those of the Emperor and Empire on the other, if the adjusting of this Affair was not a Work which singly concerns their Imperial and most Christian Majesties. The King and the Emperor, when they concluded the late Treaty of Peace, agreed to fix a Time for this Regulation, which seem'd the more necessary, because for want of it, Inconveniencies happened more than once before the War. The Treaty of Peace having secured the Dutchy of Lorain to France, render'd this Regulation still more necessary; and as the great View of this Treaty was to put an End to the Misfortunes occasioned by the War, there are none but the Powers concerned in that War, that have a Right of advising the Measures conducive to that end. The most Christian King therefore refers it to the Wisdom of the States General, to judge whether it be reasonable that they should have a Commissary at the Congress of Lisle: Nevertheless, if notwithstanding the Reasons, their High Mightinesses persist in their Demand that they may be permitted to send one thither, the King gives his Consent to it, provided that the Emperor thinks proper to give his in like Manner.'

Bussels, June 13. O. S. Several Officers in the Service of Spain, who are Natives of this Country, to which they return'd on their private Affairs by Permission from his Catholick Majesty, have receiv'd Orders from the Spanish Court to be at the Head of their several Regiments in two Months time. M. Deliz, a rich Portuguese Jew, very well known in the World, is arriv'd here from Holland, who has a safe Conduct from Court for six Months, and 'tis thought he will get Leave to settle in this City.

From the Velt Marshal de Konigsfegg's Camp at Panczava, May 31. O. S.

For 3 Days past we have had an incessant Rain, and the Weather being at the same time very cold, it does incredible Injury both to Man and Beast; and if it should continue, as 'tis feared it will, 'tis like to baffle all the Projects that have been concerted. The Count de Konigsfegg has resolv'd to succour Orsova, which the Commandant has received Orders to defend to the last Extremity.

The Fortress of Orsova stands in the Middle of the Danube, in an Island about 3 Miles in Length, and near a Mile in Breadth. 'Twas built by Order of the Emperor, after the Treaty of Passarowitz, and consists of a Parallelogram, with a Bastion at each Angle, environ'd with a good Ditch, a cover'd Way, a Counterscarp, and some other Works. All of it that cou'd possibly be casemated is done so, because the Place is commanded by a double Chain of Mountains, which run on each Side of the Danube from Vipalka to Widdin. These Works take up the West Part of the Island. At the Point of the Eastern Part there's a Bastion with 2 Fronts, mounted with about 9 Pieces of Cannon, which communicates with the Fortress by means of two Parapets of Stone Work, which cover the two Sides of the Island. The Space between is fill'd with the Houses of the Inhabitants, which are not very numerous. Old Orsova is half a League on this Side towards the Bannate. On the other Side over-against the Island, at the Foot of the Hills, is the Fort of St. Elizabeth, being a great Square Structure casemated and bor'd for Artillery and Small Arms. A little above there's a Tower, which is Square also like the other, communicates with the Fort, and is casemated and bor'd in like manner. The Turks are actually battering this Fort and Tower with several Pieces of Cannon.

Vienna, June 7. O. S. The late Colonel Hombracht who was broke with Infamy, for having subscribed to the scandalous Surrender of Nissa, has taken the Habit of the Order of the Trinitarians of the Redemption of Captives, and is actually performing his Noviciate in this City, in the Convent of White Spaniards. He has a Wife and Children, but he had no Occasion to ask his Wife's Consent for his embracing the Ecclesiastical State, because it seems he had rather he had suffer'd himself to be cut in Pieces by the Turks, than be guilty of so much Cowardice, for she has parted Beds with him ever since he has been broke.

A Battle with the Turks being expected e'er this Month is out, Prayers are begun in the Metropolitan and other Churches of this City, to implore the Blessing of Heaven on the Arms of his Imperial and Catholick Majesty.

They add, that it appears by all Advices from Hungary, that the Turks carry on the War very politely. They not only set the Officers they take at Liberty, on their Parole of Honour to return upon Demand, but they treat the other Prisoners very civilly, don't send them into Slavery, but keep them to be exchanged at the Peace. 'Tis observ'd also, to their Honour, that they are very punctual to their Capitulations and other Agreements. This Character of them is confirm'd by Colonel Piccolomini, who commanded in Meadia; and he adds, that before he came away he din'd with the Turkish Bashaw to whom he was to surrender that Post, and that in Acknowledgment of the advantageous Capitulation which he had obtained, he made a Present to the Bashaw of a Gold Watch, Snuff-Box, and a Gold-headed Cane; and that the Bashaw in Return, presented him with a fine Horse richly accoutred.

The Earl of Crawford, one of the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, is arriv'd at Petersburg with several English Gentlemen, and will shortly set out for the Army under the Velt Marshal de Munich, in order to make the Campaign against the Turks in quality of a Volontier.

Letters of the 30th ult. O. S. from Madrid say, that about a Week before, the Squadron which had been fitting out at Cadiz, sail'd with a fair Wind, and Orders, as 'tis said, to make the best of its Way to the Havanna. It consisted of 6 Men of War, viz. 4 of 62, and 2 of 52 Guns each. They have a great Number of Hands on board, and the necessary Rigging to fit out two other Men of War lately built at the Havanna.

L O N D O N.

Yesterday the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council-Men of this City, waited on their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales at Norfolk-House in St. James's Square, and were introduced by his Grace the Duke of Queensbury, Lord of the Bed-Chamber in waiting to his Royal Highness; and they having prepar'd their Compliments on the Birth of the Prince, Mr. Baron Thomson the Recorder, deliver'd them as followeth:

May it please your Royal Highnesses,

WE the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council-Men of the City of London, most humbly beg Leave to attend your Royal Highnesses, to express our Joy on the Increase of your Royal Family by the Birth of a Prince, and upon the Recovery of her Royal Highness.

May your Royal Highnesses become the happy Parents of a numerous Offspring, to be a Delight to his Majesty and your Royal Highnesses, to give Joy to his Majesty's Subjects, and strengthen every Part of our Constitution.

We doubt not but by your Royal Highnesses Care, this young Prince will be early taught those virtuous Maxims, which alone can make a Prince and People happy; and that by the Example of his Majesty, and your Royal Highnesses, he will learn, that the Glory, as well as Security of the Throne, must be founded in the Hearts and Affections of the People.

To which is Royal Highness made this most gracious Answer.

My Lord, and Gentlemen,

I Return you my Thanks, and those of the Princess, for this new Instance of your Duty to the King, and of your Affection to me. My Son, I hope, may come in Time to deserve the Gratitude of a free People, which his Majesty now enjoys; and it shall be my constant Care to instruct him, that true Loyalty can only be the Result of Liberty.

They all had the Honour to kiss their Royal Highnesses Hands.

This

This Day at Two o'Clock the Master, Wardens, and Court of Assistants of the Worshipful Company of Sadlers, are to wait on their Royal Highnesses on the same happy Occasion.

Yesterday James Brooks, Esq; Citizen and Stationer, appeared before the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, and gave Bond to execute the Office of Sheriff; John Wightman, Esq; Citizen and Brewer, appeared also, but refused to give Bond on account of his being a Protestant Dissenter, and not qualified according to the Corporation Act.

Whereas the Success of this Work hath depended on the Encouragement and Assistance of Gentlemen and Ladies of the most elegant Taste and Understanding in Poetry, Musick, and Engraving, and by whose Friendship it hath hitherto been carried on with Credit; but as Undertakings of this Kind are liable to be pirated, mimick'd, imitated, and torn to Pieces, when found successful, so this hath met with that Fate by another Work of the same Kind, and upon the same Principle, which is published with large Puffs and Encomiums, and not without scandalous Reflections and Disparagements of this; therefore the Undertaker submits it to a candid Decision of his Subscribers and Lovers of Musick, Engraving, &c. to take which of them appears to be performed with the most Propriety, when compar'd, and not be drawn away by a Quack Advertisement.

The GRAND SPECIFICK for Cleansing and Strengthening the Reins, &c.

A Medicine that hath gain'd so much

Credit, for these many Years it has been publish'd, that not one of the many Pretenders to cure the like Cases, has at all hinder'd the just Reputation this first and only Specifick for these Purposes, hath obtain'd, by its most noble Effects; for it doth not only cure such difficult Cases, which no other Medicine can: But in every ordinary Case, one Bottle will do more real Good than four, that are sold by any of the common Pretenders, as has been sufficiently attested by many Persons of Worth and Reputation that have found the desired Effects, and declared it to Mr. Sandwell.

It may be certainly depended on as absolutely effectual, for carrying off, by Urine, safely and speedily, all the Relicks of secret Injuries, Remains of pernicious unskillfully prepar'd Mercurials, Gleet, or Weakness, thro' tedious or ill-manag'd Cures of the Venereal Disease, or from Self-pollution, inordinate Coition, &c.

Also any Weaknesses of the Vessels from Wrenches, Strains, Blows, or Falls, and all other Obstructions in the Urinary Passages, even Stranguries, Ulcers, &c. are perfectly cured by it; be they of ever so long standing; which Relicks and Ailments are, in Part, discovered by these following Symptoms, viz. Weakness and Pain in the Back, a Sharpness in the Urine, its strong Smell, Films or Hairs as it were floating about in it, and, in some, too frequent Occasion to make it.

This noble Specifick is also of singular and very extraordinary Use and Efficacy, where there is any Gravel, or small Stones, Slime, or any other Matter that obstructs the Urine, bringing all away in a few Times taking, with Safety, and to the very great Satisfaction of the Patients, as has been happily experienced by great Numbers of both Sexes, and particularly by a Gentleman, whose Case has so often been mentioned in this Advertisement, by a Certificate of his Cure, who, on taking but a little of this noble Specifick, voided above an Ounce of Gravel, and was cured of an insupportable Pain about his Loins, &c. by a short Continuance of it.

It also strengthens and recovers, after a particular Manner, all Relaxations of the Vessels, confirms the Parts, bringing into Order, and thereby perfects the Cure to Admiration. It is a very pleasant Medicine, and will be found of uncommon Benefit to Mankind, beyond Expectation, which is the Reason of its being made publick, and to obviate the Ignorance of Pretenders in all the difficult Cases above-mentioned.

One Bottle, in most Cases, is sufficient for a perfect Cure, as you will see by the Directions given with it.

Sold at 7s. 6d. the Bottle, at Mr. Sandwell's Toy-shop, in the Griffin, the Corner of Bucklersbury, in the Poultry.
